The Narcissus

By: Mary I. Farr

An ancient parable tells of a child who visited a garden of wisdom with her grandmother.

As they wandered among the radiant sprays of delphinium, foxgloves, roses and delicate turks cap lilies, the old woman told her granddaughter about mysterious healing qualities of flowers. She spoke of roots and petals crushed into secret potions, exotic therapies, magic elixirs, soothing teas, and bewitching perfumes.

As they ended their walk, the grandmother invited the child to select a flower bulb to plant in her own garden. After inspecting the thick, dark tubers, the child made her choice and slipped it into the pocket of her dress.

"This is a very special bulb you've chosen", said her grandmother. "It is called a narcissus, and you must cultivate it with great care in order to gain all of its healing benefits. In fact, the first thing you must do when you get home is place it in a dark spot, and leave it there until it begins to sprout. Once it grows roots, you can take the bulb into the daylight and plant it in the garden with the rest of your flowers."

The little girl promised to do as her grandmother said ..... at least until she got home.

Then, after finding just the right place in a cellar closet, the child could not resist opening the door every hour or so to see if the narcissus had sprouted. Each day she jumped from her bed, raced to the damp, earthen room and peered through the shadow into the closet. And each day brought another disappointment. She wailed to her grandmother who listened politely but only encouraged patience. Secretly the grandmother removed the bulb from the cellar, washed the dirt away and examined it with a reading glass ..... Nothing.

She was only mine a while

By Kymberli Brady © 1999

Lord, today I sent my baby to You
Please give her wings and let her fly
She's new at this so take it slow
Teach her how they flutter by
I'll miss her so though we'd never met
And I'll never know her smile
But You need her and now she's Yours
She was only mine a while
She'll never know pain
And she'll never know fear
For I know that You will keep her near
And now...

I close my eyes to say good-bye
And watch her fly away to You
Please keep her, Lord, and love her 'till
I get my wings and join You, too.

There's This Place

Gretchen Kemp

"There's this place
in me where your fingerprints still rest,
your kisses still linger,
and your whispers softly echo. It's the place where a part of you will forever be a part of me."

Healing doesn't mean
The damage never existed,
It means the damage
No longer controls our lives.

Southern Minnesota Initiative Foundation Awards $18,434 in Valspar Paint

Valspar Paint Donated to IRIS through the Southern Minnesota Initiative Foundation

OWATONNA - Southern Minnesota Initiative Foundation (SMIF) awarded $18,434 worth of Valspar paint to 20 projects across the region with Infants Remembered In Silence, Inc. (IRIS) of Faribault receiving 60 gallons for painting of the exterior of the IRIS House, the basement (that is soon to be sheet rocked), kitchen area and other unpainted areas of the house.

Picture-It-Painted is a partnership between SMIF and Valspar Corporation in support of community beautification and restoration projects throughout southern Minnesota.

Since 1998, SMIF and Valspar Corporation have awarded over 8,000 gallons of paint valued at over $175,000 to more than 200 projects in southern Minnesota. The grant is awarded to projects that will have a visual impact, provide a public benefit to the community, and involve volunteer participation.

This year, over 700 gallons were awarded to different beautification projects in southern Minnesota.

"The Picture-it-Painted program reminds us that collaboration shapes and improves our communities. These projects involve a number of volunteers and will provide their communities with an asset they can enjoy for years to come," said Tim Penny, SMIF President and CEO. "We are pleased to support these projects that will improve the look of our region."

Picture It Painted—Southern Minnesota Initiative Foundation

What a awesome grant—IRIS received 60 gallons of paint—enough to paint the exterior of the IRIS house as well as the kitchen, upstairs bathroom, interior porches, and touch up the other walls and ceilings. We also plan to finish off the lower level and have paint to complete that! Needed: volunteer painters, drywall hangers, and handyman crew. We also need volunteers to assist with prep work such as taping off areas for the painters, and clean up like sweeping, and cleaning areas, brushes, and other paint tools. If you are interested and able—please call our office at 334-4748. Your help is needed!

Don't Miss this Special Opportunity to Share Memories through Scrapbooking!

"The child is not with us, but the heart and soul have the need to remember."

How wonderful would it be for you to have something you treasure, something to look through, a way to remember the moments you shared? The feeling would be Amazing!

On October 18, 2014, IRIS will be hosting a very special day of Scrapbooking! This is a FREE event! We have all of the supplies you will need!

So, what is scrapbooking? Scrapbooking is preserving special memories, pictures, and keepsakes that you have of your child. It is a creative outlet, allowing you to memorialize the child that has died regardless of his/her age. Scrapbooks hold some of the most priceless moments of the person's life and tell us a story regardless of how long life was. Creating a scrapbook allows us to appreciate our wonderful memories of the child and allows us to honor his/her memory.

Many things have changed in your life since your child's death, but the priceless memories you have created will forever be a treasure. Creating a Scrapbook helps you see and remember those moments and helps to preserve them for years to come.

It is also an opportunity to enjoy time spent with other parents who have had similar experiences and are not fearful of seeing your pictures or hearing your story because they have been in your shoes and truly understand.

Mark your calendar now for this very special day: Saturday, October 18th, from 9 am – 9 pm. You are welcome to bring your own scrapbooking supplies or use the scrapbooks, papers, embellishments, and other decorations that have been donated to IRIS.

All you need to bring is your pictures from pregnancy or ultrasounds; photos of your child, or of a memorial event or funeral; and other keepsakes. We will help you with the rest.

Meals and Treats: You are also welcome to bring a treat to share (not required), a bag lunch, and your own beverages. IRIS will provide supper.

To register, please contact Natalie at the IRIS Office (507) 334-4748 or email: support@irisRemembers.com

MILK MOOLA—IRIS collects the Kwik Trip Milk Moola labels. Bring them in and our volunteer will take care of the rest. In March we received $123.40! Remember to wash/rinse the labels before bringing them to our office. THANK YOU!!

Gopher Sports is a 2014 Turkey Trot Diamond Sponsor!

IRIS received a $2,500 donation from Gopher Sport in Owatonna in March 2014. Turkey Trot planning began early this year in the hope of allowing more people to volunteer and participate. Generous donations continue to come in to our office!

Coming soon....the 6th Annual IRIS Turkey Trot! We hope you plan to join us on Thanksgiving morning, November 27, 2014. You can run, walk, trot or jog, bring the kids and bring your dog! We will have prizes for the top runner in each age category, and treats for all participants at the end of the race.

"Then one day, after the little girl had given up hope of ever seeing her narcissus become a flower, her grandmother called from the cellar steps. Look here", said the old woman. "Something has happened to your bulb."

The little girl gasped in disbelief. Indeed, something HAD happened. The bulb had grown a hardy set of roots, and from its top poked a soft green nub. Sure enough, the narcissus was going to bloom after all, and after she had give up hope.

And this is how the narcissus came to be known as the flower of the new heart. As is the case in our human lives, real growth often takes place in darkness. God and healing most often meet in the unlit places of our hearts. It is the winter days and violet nights that invite us to send down roots ..... to grow in courage and hope, coaxed into spring and toward the promise of a new heart.

Pictured are Diana Sundwall IRIS Executive Director, Anna Kincade IRIS Volunteer and Unsung Hero, and Anna Kettering IRIS Board President.

Anna Kincade was named one of the 2014 Unsung Heroes in Faribault, MN for the countless hours she dedicates to IRIS. Kincade has been an IRIS volunteer for over 15 years where she has knit or crocheted approximately 1,000 blankets and caps for infants and young children who have died. The blankets and caps range from simple to extremely ornate, tiny to crib-sized. These special blankets and hats are hand-knit or crocheted for a child to be wrapped in, buried in, or saved as keepsakes. Kincade also makes Prayer Shawls for IRIS to give to grieving families or a sick infant in intensive care.

"Anna has touched the lives of thousands of people that she will never know," Sundwall wrote in her nomination. "She brought a sense of peace and great comfort to grieving families."

Infants Remembered In Silence

Would like to invite you, your family, and friends to our:

12th Annual

Potluck & Balloon Release

Sunday October 5, 2014

Kinder Park

(The IRIS Park)

Located at the corner of 17th St. and 24th Ave. in NW Faribault
(Behind the Faribault Golf Club)

Potluck at 12 Noon

IRIS will provide plates, napkins, silverware, and bottled water.
Please bring a dish to share and your own beverage if you would like something other than water.

Balloon Release 2 pm

Bring your own latex balloon(s) to release (as many as you would like)
Mylar (foil) balloons do not work well, are bad for the environment, and are not usually found.

Please contact the IRIS Office if you have any questions:
Phone 507-334-4748 or support@irisRemembers.com

Balloon Release Suggestions

1. Blow up your own balloons: Purchase a small tank at Wal-Mart, Target, etc. Consider placing a hand written note to your child, flower seeds, etc. inside the balloon. (Sharp corners will pop the balloons.)

Purchasing your balloons: Call several days ahead and order your balloon. Tell them that they are for a balloon release and do not need to be weighted. Balloons can be ordered at most grocery stores, flower shops, and party shops.

Do NOT Release Mylar (foil) Balloons, they are bad for the environment and are not usually the ones found. Latex balloons are degradable.

2. Place a tag on each balloon. On a computer create a special 3 ½" x 2" tag (business card size). Print the tag on plain computer paper; include your child's name, dates, picture, message, etc.

For safety reasons and convenience, please include the IRIS info. We have had calls from people who have found a balloon several years after it's been released and they could not read the child's name but could read the IRIS info. Those finding the balloon tags have stated they felt more comfortable contacting the Organization rather than the parents.

3. Cover each tag with clear contact paper before tying to balloon string.
4. IRIS will have tags and contact paper at the balloon release if you need them.
5. Bring your balloons in a large bag. Have the strings and tags inside so the wind will not tangle them. (Clear bags look nice filled with balloons)
6. Leave balloons in your car; be sure to crack your windows so the balloons don't pop.

If you have questions please contact the IRIS office (507) 334-4748 or support@irisRemembers.com

You may find it interesting to know that in the past 6 years only men and young boys have found balloons and called in to the office and we have had one Mom who called in for her son who found the balloon.

One balloon was found in WI still partially frozen in the lake ice and balloons from the 2007 release were found in Athens PA (1,211 miles in 50 hours) and Selkirk NY (1,253 miles in 48 hours). We have also had balloons found in Germantown Maryland (1,175 miles in 24 hours) A balloon was found 10 miles from the White House in Washington D.C. Balloon tags have been found 8 years after their release!
